ADDRESS.

In the announcement of this Work it was stated that the main feature would be, to present "such a number of examples of foliage and other ornamental details of the different styles" of English Architecture, "as clearly to elucidate the characteristic features peculiar to each period, and drawn sufficiently large in scale to be practically useful in facilitating the labours of the architect and artist."*

This object has been kept in view from the commencement, and it will be strictly adhered to throughout. In selecting examples, the rule endeavoured to be followed has been, to give those remarkable for their variety, simplicity, and beauty—and, at the same time, such as were likely to prove of the greatest utility. Examples merely curious, or only remarkable for antiquarian interest, but not possessed of much intrinsic beauty, have been carefully avoided.

Much approbation has been expressed of the plates devoted to coloured decorations, which form so prominent a feature in this volume. As many have been given as was originally intended, yet, notwithstanding the cost and trouble they entail, it is the author's intention, in the concluding volume, to increase their number, provided he can procure sufficiently valuable subjects from existing specimens. His motive for so doing is, to preserve in his pages these specimens of by-gone taste, which are fast decaying, and unlikely ever to be restored.

It may be as well to state the fact, that the number of stones and printings, required to perfect the coloured subjects, would produce more than double the number of those plates that are not coloured.

The author has experienced the greatest pleasure in carrying out his work, and has often paused in his labours to gaze, with wonder and admiration, at the never-ending variety and glorious genius displayed by our forefathers in the various portions of their works.

It is, indeed, surprising to observe the care and attention that has been bestowed upon even the most minute details; yet, it appears more surprising still, that so much that was

PLATE.

73. STONE ORNAMENT FROM THE WESTERN DOORWAY, ELY CATHEDRAL.

79.* PAINTING FROM THE GROINING OF THE PASSAGE LEADING TO THE CHAPTER HOUSE, SALISBURY CATHEDRAL.

The plain surfaces of the groining are formed with plaster, and jointed with brown colour, in imitation of stone work. The ribs are of stone. The groining of the Chapter House is decorated in a similar manner. The Choir and other parts of the Cathedral have also been decorated by painting, but are now covered up with a yellow wash.

89. STONE CAPITAL FROM ROMSEY CHURCH, HANTS.

90. ,, ORNAMENTS TO BASES OF PIERS, FROM DITTO.

91. ,, DITTO DITTO.

97.* SPECIMENS OF ENRICHED TILE PAVING FROM THE CHAPTER HOUSE, SALISBURY CATHEDRAL.

101.* DITTO DITTO, FROM THE PRESBYTERY, WINCHESTER CATHEDRAL.

It may be observed, that in the ancient arrangement of enriched tiles there was always a sufficient division made in the general design by grey or neutral coloured tiles, to prevent the paving from having a confused effect.

5.* SPECIMENS OF DIAPER ENAMELLED UPON COPPER, GILT, FROM THE TOMB OF WILLIAM DE VALENCE, EARL OF PEMBROKE, WHO DIED IN 1296, FROM ST. EDMUND'S CHAPEL, WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

6. STONE CAPITALS FROM THE CLOISTERS, LINCOLN CATHEDRAL.

7. ,, DITTO DITTO DITTO.

9.* SHIELD AND BELTS, ENAMELLED UPON COPPER, GILT, FROM THE TOMB OF WILLIAM DE VALENCE, ST. EDMUND'S CHAPEL, WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

10. STONE CAPITALS FROM A DOORWAY IN THE CLOISTERS, WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

11. ,, FOLIATED CUSPS, FROM THE LADY CHAPEL, ELY CATHEDRAL.

13. ,, ORNAMENTS AT THE SPRINGING OF ARCHES OF ARCADE, FROM THE CHAPTER HOUSE, SOUTHWELL MINSTER, NOTTS.

The whole of the carving in the Chapter House, and passage leading thereto, is of the most chaste and delicate description. It is remarkable for its variety and striking fidelity to natural foliage. The date is about 1290.

14. ,, PORTION OF CANOPY OF ARCADE FROM SOUTHWELL MINSTER, NOTTS.

15. ,, SPANDRILS FROM DITTO DITTO.

22. ,, CAPITALS FROM DOORWAY OF DITTO DITTO.

23. ,, DETAILS OF DOORWAY OF DITTO DITTO.

24. ,, STONE MAPLE-LEAF ORNAMENT, DITTO.

The fine effect of this ornament is not gained from any elaborate undulations of the surface of the leaves, but from the extraordinary way in which the foliage is relieved from behind, and from the variety and freedom in the design,—the arrangement of the foliage in every stone of the arch being entirely different.

25. ,, VINE-LEAF ORNAMENT FROM THE LABEL OF DITTO DITTO.

29. ,, KNOTS OF FOLIAGE FROM THE LADY CHAPEL, ELY CATHEDRAL.

The whole of the foliage from the Lady Chapel, at Ely, possesses great beauty. It has a fine, rich, full appearance, but is of a totally different character from the foregoing specimens from Southwell; mainly depending for effect upon its various undulations of surface. It may be considered late in the style.

34. STONE DIAPER WORK, FROM LINCOLN CATHEDRAL.

This is from a dilapidated monument near the altar. It contains leaves of the maple, oak, and thorn; the faces of the leaves being sometimes sunk, while others are raised, with stems. The sunken leaves represent the upper side, and the raised stem the under side of the leaf. This is a common feature in decorated foliage.

72. „ DITTO DITTO.

74. „ CANOPIED STALLS FROM THE CHOIR OF WINCHESTER CATHEDRAL.

The date of this work may be stated to be about the same as the Chapter House at Southwell Minster—the end of the 13th Century. It appears to have been restored and altered about the time of Charles II.; at which time, probably, the pinnacles between the canopies, and those in front of the clustered shafts at E, were added. The original clustered shaft appears to have been as shown beneath the present plan, the bases of which probably rested upon the stalls. The shaft of the present pinnacle runs through to the ground, and cuts through the carved elbow.

It is to be regretted that the work is covered with a varnish, so dark in colour, as to give it almost the appearance of ebony.

75. „ CANOPY, AT LARGE, FROM THE STALLS, CHOIR OF WINCHESTER CATHEDRAL.

76. „ FINIAL FROM DITTO DITTO.

77. „ ENRICHED CUSPS FROM DITTO DITTO.

78. „ STALL ELBOWS FROM DITTO DITTO.

It will be seen that the foliage retains much of the character peculiar to early English work, with a mixture of that which is more natural.

81. „ DETAILS OF DITTO DITTO.

83. „ SPANDRILS FROM DITTO DITTO.

84. „ DITTO DITTO DITTO.

In these spandrils an effect is gained by very simple means. The oak, out of which the foliage is carved, is very thin, but stands away from the ground behind. This produces intense shade, which throws out the carving in a very striking manner.

85. „ FINIAL FROM THE STALLS, WINCHESTER CATHEDRAL.

86. „ STALL ELBOWS FROM ST. MARGARET'S CHURCH, LYNN, NORFOLK.

92. STONE CANOPY FROM AN ARCADE IN THE PRESBYTERY, WINCHESTER CATHEDRAL.

This work is of excellent character, and the carving finished with great delicacy. Some of the crockets have been given before, but not very correctly.

93. „ FINIAL FROM DITTO DITTO DITTO.

94. „ FINIAL AND CROCKETS FROM PINNACLES OF DITTO.

The finial is here represented as seen from below, to show the arrangement of the under leaf, which springs from the neck moulding; its points extending to the corresponding points of the upper leaves. There is a similar arrangement in the finial given in the previous plate.

The whole of the inscription runs thus:—

"Pray for the sowle of John Salmân & Sysyly hys wyfe, that gave forte pōde, and for all other bñfactors, made in the Eeer of ower Lord God, MCCCCXCHH."

4. WOODEN SPANDRILS FROM NORTH WALSHAM CHURCH AND TRUNCH CHURCH, NORFOLK.

12. ,, STRAWBERRY LEAF ORNAMENTS, FROM LUDHAM CHURCH, TRUNCH CHURCH, AND KNAPTON CHURCH, NORFOLK.

16. ,, CROCKETS AND FINIAL FROM SCREEN IN CHOIR, YORK MINSTER; AND TWO SPRINGING CROCKETS FROM ROOD SCREEN, KNAPTON CHURCH, NORFOLK.

17. ,, PANELLING FROM THE PULPIT, TATTERSHALL CHURCH, LINCOLNSHIRE.

18.* ,, PANELLING FROM PAINTED ROOD SCREEN, DICKLEBURGH CHURCH, NORFOLK.

19. ,, SPANDRILS AND FOLIATED CUSPS FROM DITTO.

27.* ,, PAINTED SPANDRILS AND NICHE, FROM THE ROOF OF KNAPTON CHURCH, NORFOLK.

36.* ,, PAINTED CORNICE AND CEILING, FROM THE CLOPTON CHANTRY, LONG MELFORD CHURCH, SUFFOLK.

The scroll in the cornice, shown larger in the following plate, is continued on all four sides of the Chantry. It contains different prayers—the last lines frequently similar—as:—

"Wyth this woord merce knelyng on oure kne;"

or,

"Grant or we deye shrifte hosell and repentance."

Between the feet of the rafters were a series of shields, blazoned with the arms of Clopton—namely, sable, a bend ermine between two cottises, dancette, or,—impaling the arms of the various parties who intermarried with the family. Below were the names of the families united. The whole of the walls of the Chantry have been nearly covered with Scriptural legends and prayers; but they are now obliterated by whitewash. The stars upon the ceiling are of lead, gilt.

37.* COMMENCEMENT AND TERMINATION OF SCROLL IN THE CORNICE, FROM THE CLOPTON CHANTRY, LONG MELFORD CHURCH, NORFOLK.

38. WOODEN POPPY HEADS FROM LAVENHAM CHURCH, SUFFOLK.

39. ORNAMENTS FROM SEATING, FROM DITTO.

40.* PAINTED PANEL FROM THE CEILING OF THE EASTERN COMPARTMENT OF THE SOUTH AISLE, ST. MARY'S CHURCH, BURY ST. EDMUND'S, SUFFOLK.

This compartment formerly was the chapel of John Baret, but the screens which enclosed it are wholly gone, and a modern gallery extends along the whole of the aisle. The tomb still remains, and a piscina. The main panels are all similar to the one given. The green foliage appears to have been stencilled. The stars are of lead, gilt. It is understood, that they formerly contained a small mirror in the centre of each; but there are none remaining perfect at present. The legend extending across the panel is "Grace me goberne." The monogram within the collar of SS, is I. B., for John Baret.

41. WOODEN BOSSES FROM THE CEILING OF THE SOUTH AISLE, ST. MARY'S CHURCH, BURY ST. EDMUND'S, SUFFOLK.

42. STONE PATERÆ, IN STRING COURSES, FROM WESTMINSTER ABBEY, AND LAVENHAM CHURCH, SUFFOLK.

53. DITTO DITTO DITTO.

54.* PAINTING UPON THE WOOD GROINING OF THE CHOIR, ST. ALBAN'S ABBEY CHURCH, HERTS.

The groining is of decorated character, and has been previously painted with foliage, in scrolls, which may still be partially traced through the ground of the present painting. The later decorations, most probably, were done about the time that the great altar screen was completed, by William de Wallingford, who was abbot from A.D. 1476 to 1484. The joints of the boarding show and run across the painting; upright joints have been added, in white paint, as if to imitate stone groining.

64. WOODEN STALL ELBOW FROM ST. NICHOLAS' CHAPEL, LYNN, NORFOLK.

65. ,, DITTO DITTO.

66.* ,, PAINTED PANEL FROM THE ROOD SCREEN, EAST HARLING CHURCH, NORFOLK.

The lower part of this beautiful screen only remains. The sacred monogram, given at plate 70, occupies a similar position to the quatrefoil in the present plate.

70.* ,, PAINTED "I. H. C." FROM DITTO DITTO.

82. ,, POPPY HEAD FROM ST. NICHOLAS' CHAPEL, LYNN, NORFOLK.

87. ,, SUBSELLÆ FROM THE STALLS, CHOIR OF NORWICH CATHEDRAL.

88.* ,, PAINTED PANEL FROM THE ROOD SCREEN, CARBROOKE CHURCH, NORFOLK.

The flowers upon the diaper are stencilled, and similar to some upon the screen at East Harling Church.

98. STONE VINE-LEAF ORNAMENT FROM THE LADY CHAPEL, WINCHESTER CATHEDRAL.

99. WOODEN ANGEL, AND EMBLEMS FROM THE ROOF, SWAFFHAM CHURCH, NORFOLK.

100. ,, SPANDRILS FROM DITTO DITTO.

102. ,, POPPY HEAD FROM THE LADY CHAPEL, WINCHESTER CATHEDRAL.

There is a dragon, similar to one of these, in an arm-rest in the choir, which has been taken for an original one of the decorated period; and has been pointed out as a curious instance of the artists of the 15th century copying a design of the 14th. This is, however, not correct,—the arm-rest being only a modern imitation.

103. ,, PANELLING FROM WINCHESTER CATHEDRAL, ST. CROSS, HANTS, LYNN, AND TRUNCH CHURCH, NORFOLK.

104.* THE ILLUMINATED TITLE-PAGE; DESIGNED AND DECORATED IN ACCORDANCE WITH ANCIENT EXAMPLES. THE FOLIAGE IS ARRANGED FROM NATURAL FORMS.
